

PERU

2019 American National Health Marketing Conference

Qualifications are underway for the 2019 Marketing Conference in Peru, South America!

GET READY FOR THE ADVENTURE OF A LIFETIME!

Come away with us to Peru – a beautiful country once home to the Inca Empire, and known today for its ancient and unique blend of cultural heritages. An extraordinary place ‘where riches are not measured in things but in well-being and harmony with nature.’*

Our Peruvian journey begins and ends in exotic Lima – the capital of Peru. You'll explore Lima, a bustling metropolis with a wide range of activities for both relaxing and recreation. It is home to Plaza de Armas, the birthplace of Lima; Museo Larco with its collection of 1000s of pre-Columbian artifacts; restaurants; markets; and Parque de la Reserva with its amazing, nightly water and light show. You'll travel by plane to Cusco, the capital of the ancient Inca civilization; and by train to explore Machu Picchu. No trip to Peru is complete without seeing this astounding historic temple.

Start your qualification today! You don't want to miss out. This conference is going to be – as they say in Peru – muy bacán! That is awesome! Very cool!
